ORGANIC CUVÉE GAIA

Our Arcadian Farm Origins champion those maverick growers whose inspirational ethos & way of life respects the land & the old ways in the pursuit of natural flavour over yield imperative. Gaia, neopagan goddess & personification of Mother Earth herself, is our standard bearer for our organic cuvée. Bringing together organic distillations from six Single Farm Origins for complexity, & two diverse harvests for harmony, Cuvée Gaia is a celebration of Ireland's original & only certified organic single malt.

TASTING NOTES

Colour: Polished brass syrupy-thick oils.

Nose: Lovely depth of heather honey, rich malted barley, dark berries and the earthiness of pine forest floor after rain. Old leather furniture, hessian and dark spices of nutmeg. All given fruit and juiciness by blackberry compôte.

Taste: Unctuous, almost chewy texture with golden syrup-drizzled sponge cake, manuka honey and very decadent flapjacks. Ripe summer berry fruits - almost jams.

Finish: Near-endless, fruits and honeys entwining with the rich savoury tones of malt.

Growers: John Mallick, Paddy Tobin, Alan Jackson, Pat & Denis Booth, Jason Stanley, Trevor Harris
