

COMMUNITY EMPOWERMENT

Forrest Tuff dedicates his life to helping others and giving back to youth, citizens, and the business community. He is an entrepreneur, philanthropist, and public speaker that utilizes his various professional platforms to impact the community.

Recognized as one of Atlanta's 500 Most Powerful Business Leaders, he is the CEO of One Vision Productions, an award-winning multimedia, and branding agency. Since 2015, it has annually awarded a grant to a nonprofit through its Pay It Forward program. It is listed as one of Atlanta's "Best and Brightest Companies to Work For" by the National Association for Business Resources.

Forrest understands the importance of leaving a legacy. In 2011, he tragically lost his brother to a heart attack and became an Ambassador for the American Heart Association. Filled with a purpose to honor his life and untimely passing, he annually participates in the Heart Walk to raise awareness about heart disease and stroke.

Furthermore, he is a Business and Industry Advisory Council Member for Paul Duke STEM High School and Business Coach for 3DE Schools by Junior Achievement. He is also a SCORE-certified pro bono business mentor that has helped hundreds of people looking to start or sustain a business. In 2021, American Express committed $2.5M to provide 100 black women entrepreneurs with a $25,000 grant. Forrest was selected to mentor several grant awardees that later achieved successful outcomes.

He was listed on the Points of Light Inspirational Honor Roll, which celebrates acts of service, kindness, and civic engagement by individuals who create change in communities worldwide.

Visit www.forresttuff.com or www.onevisprod.com to learn more.