Restaurants

Poached Jobs' website...If it has a kitchen, it will be listed here. This site might be a bit busy so try scaling it down and here's how...after clicking "Go to Poached Jobs" enter your zip code at the top and wait for your town to present, click search.

Construction

Construction Jobs' website...very much like the Poached site without the kitchens. Though, when I put in my zip code, it took me to Sweden (likely not an approved probation location)...for a more local search I suggest using: City, State and zip .
