Telling our stories is a political action that humanizes our struggle and reclaims our African identity.

The most common way people give up their power is by thinking they don't have any.

Alice Walker

BlaQ novelist

There is no such thing as a single-issue struggle because we do not live single-issue lives.

Audre Lorde

BlaQ writer, feminist and civil rights activist

Remember this:

We be many and they be few.
They need us more than we need them.
Another world is not only possible, she is on her way. On a quiet day, listen for her breathing.

We are not what other people say we are. We are who we know ourselves to be,
and we are what we love. That's OK.

Laverne Cox

actor, producer, TV personality and activist

Not queer like gay. Queer like escaping definition. Queer like some sort of fluidity and limitless at once. Queer like a freedom too strange to be conquered.
Queer like the fearlessness to imagine what love can look like ... and to pursue it.

For those of us who live at the shoreline ... who cannot indulge the passing dreams of choice, who love in doorways coming and going in the hours between dawns ... when we speak we are afraid our words will not be heard nor welcomed, but when we are silent we are still afraid. So it is better to speak, remembering we were never meant to survive.
